PROPERTY SUMMARY

An exceptional large two-bedroom garden conversion, beautifully appointed and offering an impressive blend of volume, character, and contemporary elegance — all accessed via its own private entrance.

At the heart of the home lies a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining, and reception space of superb proportions. Designed for both stylish entertaining and relaxed day-to-day living, the expansive layout is enhanced by excellent natural light and a seamless connection to the private garden, creating a sophisticated indoor-outdoor lifestyle.

The two bedrooms provide calm and refined retreats, while the bathroom is finished to a high standard with a sleek and modern aesthetic. A substantial utility room/cellar further elevates the practicality of the home, offering outstanding additional storage and functional space.

Perfectly positioned within easy reach of vibrant local amenities, the property is moments from for swift access into the City and beyond, and close to an array of amenities at nearby Crouch End Broadway and Stroud Green. In addition, a short walk to Parkland Walk and St. Aidan's school.

A rare opportunity to acquire a garden residence of scale, privacy, and distinction in one of North London's leafy settings.
