PROPERTY SUMMARY

Positioned on the sought-after Cheshire Road, moments from the heart of Bowes Park, this beautifully refurbished two-bedroom period conversion offers an elegant blend of character, style, and contemporary living.

Occupying the ground floor of an attractive period residence, the property enjoys the rare advantage of a private rear garden, providing a tranquil retreat ideal for both entertaining and everyday relaxation. Further enhancing the sense of space and character, the property benefits from high ceilings.

The accommodation has been thoughtfully designed to create a sophisticated yet welcoming interior. Upon entering, you are greeted by two well-appointed bedrooms, leading through to an impressive open-plan kitchen and reception space filled with natural light and opening directly onto the garden. The sleek shower room has been finished in a refined contemporary style, complementing the high-quality presentation found throughout the home.

Ideally situated just off the ever-popular Myddleton Road, residents can enjoy an excellent selection of independent cafés, acclaimed eateries, artisan coffee shops, and local boutiques, contributing to the area's strong community atmosphere and growing appeal.

The property benefits from excellent transport connectivity, with frequent bus routes on nearby roads providing direct links towards Wood Green, Finsbury Park, and surrounding areas. Wood Green Underground Station (Piccadilly Line) is approximately 0.8 miles away, offering fast access into Central London, including King's Cross, Leicester Square, and Covent Garden. In addition, Bowes Park Overground Station is within easy reach, providing direct services into Moorgate, making the location ideal for commuters.

Offered chain free with a long lease and share of freehold, this outstanding home presents an excellent opportunity for discerning first-time buyers and professionals alike.
