Hornsey Rise Gardens

London, N19 3PR

PROPERTY SUMMARY

A Rare and Substantial Double-Fronted Victorian House with Extensive Orchard

An exceptionally rare opportunity to acquire a substantial double-fronted Victorian house, measuring approximately 2,950 sq ft including a large basement, and occupying an enviable position on Hornsey Rise Gardens, N19.

The property offers considerable scope for modernisation and reconfiguration, providing an exciting opportunity for a purchaser to create a substantial family home tailored to their own requirements, while retaining the character and proportions associated with a Victorian residence.

Currently arranged over several floors, the accommodation comprises a generous through reception room, separate study, kitchen/diner, utility room and ground floor shower room. The first floor provides four bedrooms, a family bathroom and separate WC, together with an additional kitchen currently serving the fifth bedroom. There is also a large basement providing valuable additional space and considerable potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary consents.

One of the property's most remarkable features is the patio garden, which provides direct access onto it's own third of an acre orchard with garden studio/workshop. This is an exceptionally unusual feature for a property in this location and provides a remarkable sense of space, greenery and privacy. The extensive outdoor setting offers significant potential for those looking to create an exceptional family garden, entertaining space or simply enjoy an abundance of mature greenery on the doorstep.

The house itself retains the generous room proportions and architectural character expected of a Victorian property, while its double-fronted design provides an impressive frontage and excellent natural separation between the principal living spaces. The property requires modernisation but this provides an incoming purchaser with the opportunity to update and remodel the accommodation to suit modern family living.

The Location
Hornsey Rise Gardens is a sought-after residential road situated on the southern slopes of Crouch End, benefiting from excellent access to the amenities of Crouch End, Archway and Highgate. Crouch End Broadway is within easy reach and provides an excellent selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities, while Archway offers further shopping and transport facilities.

The area is particularly well served for transport. Crouch Hill Station is approximately 0.4 miles away, providing access to the Overground network, while Archway Underground Station is around 0.7 miles away. There are also numerous local bus routes providing connections towards Finsbury Park, Archway, Highgate and central London.

For those who enjoy outdoor pursuits, the nearby Parkland Walk provides an attractive green route through this part of North London and is one of the area's notable recreational amenities.
The property is also well positioned for a number of highly regarded local schools, including Ashmount Primary School, Coleridge Primary School and Whitehall Park School, with City of London Academy, Highgate Hill also nearby.

This is a genuinely unusual property, combining the scale and character of a substantial Victorian home with an exceptional orchard setting. With modernisation required, it represents an exciting opportunity for a purchaser looking to create a truly individual family residence in this highly desirable North London location.
